Art, Design and Media encompasses a rapidly expanding and ever-changing range of disciplines. Whether you want to become an artist, graphic designer, computer animator, illustrator, fashion designer, sculptor or photographer; programmes available at Kendal College can provide you with a step on the road to one of these rewarding careers, in addition to developing your creative potential. Top up to a BA (Hons) in Fine Art or Applied Arts at our partner university, the University of Cumbria.

- Study locally
- Small class sizes
- Loans, grants or bursaries may be available
- Outstanding facilities

Free your potential.

During this programme you will undertake training in developing your existing skills, and acquiring new competencies supported by the concepts of 'open mindedness', 'versatility', 'intellectual curiosity', and 'lateral thinking'. These skills will enable you to assume significant responsibility within organisations or as a freelance practitioner.

Contexts typically include life drawing, a variety of still-life studies, architectural spaces and landscapes.

Remember too that you have the wildlife and landscapes of Cumbria to draw on, if you are seeking inspiration!
